From Madam President

*K*APPY FIRST SUNDAY!

Thanks to everyone who made May's chapter meeting a viable one! We met our quorum in grand style. Let us continue that momentum moving forward.

Sorors, last night's gala was truly a fun experience. If you missed it, you missed a treat! Start your planning now so that you are in the midst next year. You won't want to miss it! Thanks to all the sorors who supported this year's event and joined in all the festivities. We are continuing to improve upon this event and it is continuing to evolve into an evening of elegance and fun. The meal was delicious. The wait staff was gracious. The ambience was conducive to a great evening. Everything was just wonderful! Congratulations to Soror Miranda and her awesome committee for another successful gala!

Remember, the Pan-Hellenic picnic is this Saturday, June 9th. Don't forget we have to do a "shoutout" of some sort. So be prepared to come out and show out! I'll have something to which you can respond! I'll say something like, "When I say ____, you say ____." I'm sure we can pull it together! Thanks sorors!. Please plan to be there by noon.

The Jabberwock Scholarship Pageant is almost here! Let's go out and support this event Saturday, June 16th. It will be held at the home of the Golden Bulls, E.E. Smith High School. It starts at six o'clock in the evening. See Soror Willie for tickets. I hope to see you there.

The retreat is Saturday, June 23rd. I trust that you all have received the email with the Participant Manual you will need for the DID Training contained therein. The DID is scheduled from 9:00-11:00 a.m. Please inform your guest sorors and have them arrive after this time. Unfortunately, only FAC financial sorors for 2017-2018 can attend the DID. If you have not notified Soror Melissa for your lunch choice, please do so right away, as she finalizes retreat plans.

Sorors, we desperately need to put our calendar together for next year. We must do a better job at this than we have in the past. All dates for next year's activities should be known now and already placed on our chapter calendar. This way we don't have duplicate activities on the same day. Please have this information ready at the retreat.

As we prepare for our summer activities, please remember, "Safety First" and enjoy your summer break, whether you're working or not! We'll resume our FACE in September!

Remember the Sick & Shut-In

Sorors, please let us continue to keep our sick, shut-in, and hospitalized sorors lifted in prayer, as we also remember and pray for our bereaved sorors, who have lost loved ones. Remember, a phone call, text, email, visit, etc. can go a long way in lifting someone's spirit.

Arts & Letters

"Thoroughly compelling" describes the elements that make up the endeavors of The Arts and Letters Committee in May.

On the evening of May 19, 2018, four members of FAC visited the Cape Fear Regional Theater to spend some time with playwright, Regina Taylor. Taylor, the writer who adapted Michael Cunningham and Craig Marberry's book, CROWNS, into a play, was interviewed by fellow playwright Mike Wiley of "The Parchman Hour" fame. The interview was a sort of prelude to opening night of the production. It was intensely personal, inspirational and thought provoking.

Arts and Letters concluded its year's work with a dual "crowning" event! Our final Red Carpet Event caused us to put on our thinking caps. Out of the (hat) box came the idea to have an afternoon tea, complete with all the amenities that should accompany such an elegant occasion. Held in the CFRT Glass Room, the event featured a wonderfully interesting and informative guest presenter, a milliner, Mrs. Barbara Wood, who wove a wonderful explanation of the how and why of hats while the guests enjoyed high tea. The refreshments were authentic and tasty and the red and white table setting was beautiful, and of course, our guests dressed in a variety of beautiful hats, creating a total statement of English ambiance. The event concluded with a hat contest.

After this tea on Sunday, May 20th, we were ready to view the play, CROWNS by Regina Taylor. Our Red Carpet Event was a "bee in our bonnet" when we learned last fall that CFRT would be presenting it and this production did not disappoint! On the evening of May 24, there was a trifecta unfolding of humor, education, and the arts. The music, dance, singing and costumes were powerful! From beginning to end the full house audience enjoyed a full package of entertainment.

*Annual Event Survey: The Arts and Letters Committee: The 2017-2018 Event Year In Review. The survey will be available on the Arts and Letters website from June 1 - June 15. Sorors help us to assess the events that were sponsored by Arts and Letters 2017-2018.

Jabberwork is a traditional program of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. Members of Iota Chapter presented the first Jabberwork in 1925 in Boston, Massachusetts, as an effort to find a method of raising money for the Chapter's scholarship fund. The first Jabberwork was an immediate success and the idea caught on with many Chapters of Delta Sigma Theta.

Today, Jabberwork is considered a proud Delta tradition. Fayetteville Alumnae's first Jabberwork was held in 1954. Jabberwork funds are used to support our scholarships, programs and projects.

Your presence will give a sense of sisterhood, commitment, interest and support to our participants and parents.
